

Gear List for Wilderness First Aid/WFR Recertification Participants

You should plan to wear or have with you clothing that will be appropriate to the season and location where you will be taking your course. Weather permitting; we will be spending a significant portion of the class time out-of-doors. The following list is to SUPPLEMENT the clothing you will be wearing.

NECESSARY ITEMS

Rite-in-the-Rain notebook and pen / pencil

Raingear tops and bottoms

Winter Gear (in season)

Layers of clothing (so you can take a layer off if you are hot/put one on if you are cold)

Hat - warm, not made of cotton

Mittens or gloves if it will be cold out

Backpack to put everything in

Water bottles (1qt or 1 liter) for drinking water

Foot wear for the environment (close-toed shoes for being outdoors/sandals are OK for inside)

HELPFUL ITEMS TO BRING

Ground cloth or small tarp (6X4 sheet of plastic is fine)

Sleeping pad (ensolite, ridgerest, thermarest)

Bandanas of any kind

*Please Note: If you are a WFR Recert taking a WFA, this course will recertify current SOLO, WMA, WMI/NOLS (and a few other schools) WFR certifications. After the course is complete, you will need to send SOLO proof of your current WFR status along with a small additional administrative fee (15.00) and then you will be mailed your WFR certification.
